The undersigned is familiar with all laws, rules and regulations concerning hedging in such contracts and has not relied upon Cunningham for any related advice. This notification is a continuing one and shall remain in force until cancelled in writing. The undersigned acknowledges that Cunningham shall rely upon this representation and shall notify Cunningham immediately if this representation does not remain true and correct. Commodity Futures Trading Commission Regulation 190.06(d) requires that a broker must provide an opportunity for each customer to specify when undertaking its first hedging contract whether, in the event of the broker's bankruptcy, such customer prefers that open commodity contracts held in a hedging account be liquidated by the trustee. Accordingly, please indicate below your preference for open contracts in your account if such an event were to occur.

I instruct, that in the event of bankruptcy of the broker, the trustee . . .
