RISK DISCLOSURE STATEMENT

The risk of loss in trading commodity futures contracts can be substantial. You should, therefore, carefully consider whether such trading is suitable for you in light of your circumstances and financial resources. You should be aware of the following points:

(1) You may sustain a total loss of the funds that you deposit with your broker to establish or maintain a position in the commodity futures market, and you may incur losses beyond these amounts. If the market moves against your position, you may be called upon by your broker to deposit a substantial amount of additional margin funds, on short notice, in order to maintain your position. If you do not provide the required funds within the time required by your broker, your position may be liquidated at a loss, and you will be liable for any resulting deficit in your account.

(2) The funds you deposit with a futures commission merchant for trading futures positions are not protected by insurance in the event of the bankruptcy or insolvency of the futures commission merchant, or in the event your funds are misappropriated.

(3) The funds you deposit with a futures commission merchant for trading futures positions are not protected by the Securities Investor Protection Corporation even if the futures commission merchant is registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission as a broker or dealer.

(4) The funds you deposit with a futures commission merchant are generally not guaranteed or insured by a derivatives clearing organization in the event of the bankruptcy or insolvency of the futures commission merchant, or if the futures commission merchant is otherwise unable to refund your funds. Certain derivatives clearing organizations, however, may have programs that provide limited insurance to customers. You should inquire of your futures commission merchant whether your funds will be insured by a derivatives clearing organization and you should understand the benefits and limitations of such insurance programs.

(5) The funds you deposit with a futures commission merchant are not held by the futures commission merchant in a separate account for your individual benefit. Futures commission merchants commingle the funds received from customers in one or more accounts and you may be exposed to losses incurred by other customers if the futures commission merchant does not have sufficient capital to cover such other customers' trading losses.

(6) The funds you deposit with a futures commission merchant may be invested by the futures commission merchant in certain types of financial instruments that have been approved by the Commission for the purpose of such investments. Permitted investments are listed in Commission Regulation 1.25 and include: U.S. government securities; municipal securities; money market mutual funds; and certain corporate notes and bonds. The futures commission merchant may retain the interest and other earnings realized from its investment of customer funds. You should be familiar with the types of financial instruments that a futures commission merchant may invest customer funds in.

(7) Futures commission merchants are permitted to deposit customer funds with affiliated entities, such as affiliated banks, securities brokers or dealers, or foreign brokers. You should inquire as to whether your futures commission merchant deposits funds with affiliates and assess whether such deposits by the futures commission merchant with its affiliates increases the risks to your funds.

(8) You should consult your futures commission merchant concerning the nature of the protections available to safeguard funds or property deposited for your account.

(9) Under certain market conditions, you may find it difficult or impossible to liquidate a position. This can occur, for example, when the market reaches a daily price fluctuation limit ("limit move").

(10) All futures positions involve risk, and a "spread" position may not be less risky than an outright "long" or "short" position.

(11) The high degree of leverage (gearing) that is often obtainable in futures trading because of the small margin requirements can work against you as well as for you. Leverage (gearing) can lead to large losses as well as gains.

(12) In addition to the risks noted in the paragraphs enumerated above, you should be familiar with the futures commission merchant you select to entrust your funds for trading futures positions. The Commodity Futures Trading Commission requires each futures commission merchant to make publicly available on its Web site firm specific disclosures and financial information to assist you with your assessment and selection of a futures commission merchant. Information regarding this futures commission merchant may be obtained by visiting our Web site, www.cunninghamllc.com.

ALL OF THE POINTS NOTED ABOVE APPLY TO ALL FUTURES TRADING WHETHER FOREIGN OR DOMESTIC. IN ADDITION, IF YOU ARE CONTEMPLATING TRADING FOREIGN FUTURES OR OPTIONS CONTRACTS, YOU SHOULD BE AWARE OF THE FOLLOWING ADDITIONAL RISKS:

(13) Foreign futures transactions involve executing and clearing trades on a foreign exchange. This is the case even if the foreign exchange is formally "linked" to a domestic exchange, whereby a trade executed on one exchange liquidates or establishes a position on the other exchange. No domestic organization regulates the activities of a foreign exchange, including the execution, delivery, and clearing of transactions on such an exchange, and no domestic regulator has the power to compel enforcement of the rules of the foreign exchange or the laws of the foreign country. Moreover, such laws or regulations will vary depending on the foreign country in which the transaction occurs. For these reasons, customers who trade on foreign exchanges may not be afforded certain of the protections which apply to domestic transactions, including the right to use domestic alternative dispute resolution procedures. In particular, funds received from customers to margin foreign futures transactions may not be provided the same protections as funds received to margin futures transactions on domestic exchanges. Before you trade, you should familiarize yourself with the foreign rules which will apply to your particular transaction.

(14) Finally, you should be aware that the price of any foreign futures or option contract and, therefore, the potential profit and loss resulting therefrom, may be affected by any fluctuation in the foreign exchange rate between the time the order is placed and the foreign futures contract is liquidated or the foreign option contract is liquidated or exercised.

THIS BRIEF STATEMENT CANNOT, OF COURSE, DISCLOSE ALL THE RISKS AND OTHER ASPECTS OF THE COMMODITY MARKETS.

I hereby acknowledge that I have received and understood this risk disclosure statement.

1. ACCOUNT STATUS

This Account Agreement ("Agreement") sets forth the terms and conditions upon which Cunningham LLC ("Cunningham") will accept and maintain for the undersigned Customer one or more accounts and act as broker or dealer for Customer in the execution and clearance of orders for transactions (whether domestic or foreign) involving the purchase and sale of futures contracts; options on futures contracts; commodities and forward contracts, security futures contracts ("SSF"); option, spot and forward foreign exchange transactions; exchange for physicals ("EFPs"); and any other cash transaction or derivative, or any similar instruments which may be purchased, sold or cleared by or through an FCM (individually, a "Contract" and collectively, "Contracts"). Customer hereby represents that all responses made in connection with the Account Application and this Agreement are complete and correct, and that Cunningham will be informed of any material change in such data, including financial information.

If this account has been introduced to us, all references to us in this Agreement shall include your broker, and your broker shall enjoy all benefits and rights hereunder. Customer agrees and acknowledges that broker and Cunningham may share information with each other regarding or relating to Customer and/or Customer's account (s). Customer warrants to Cunningham that if Customer is an individual or this is a joint account, Customer (s) is of legal age and of sound mind. Unless otherwise indicated in the Application, no one except the Customer(s) identified in the Account Application has an interest in the account(s). Customer agrees to permit verification of relevant information by Cunningham through third parties (including credit reporting entities). In any event, this Agreement and the account (s) permitted hereunder become effective only upon acceptance by an authorized representative of Cunningham at its principal office in Chicago, Illinois.

2. ACCOUNT RISKS

- A.) TRADING IN CONTRACTS IS HIGHLY SPECULATIVE AND IN NO SENSE MAY BE CONSIDERED A CONSERVATIVE INVESTMENT;
- B.) BECAUSE OF THE LOW MARGIN DEPOSITS NORMALLY UTILIZED AND THE VOLATILE PRICE MOVEMENTS WHICH CAN OCCUR IN THE MARKETS, THE POSSIBILITY OF RAPID AND SUBSTANTIAL LOSSES IS CONTINUALLY PRESENT;
- C.) TRADING IN CONTRACTS IS APPROPRIATE ONLY FOR THOSE PERSONS FINANCIALLY ABLE TO WITHSTAND SUBSTANTIAL LOSSES, SOMETIMES GREATLY EXCEEDING THE VALUE OF THEIR MARGIN DEPOSITS; AND
- D.) NO ONE (INCLUDING FUTURES COMMISSION MERCHANTS, ASSOCIATED PERSONS, INTRODUCING BROKERS, FUND MANAGERS, COMMODITY TRADING ADVISORS, OR POOL OPERATORS) CAN GUARANTEE PROFITS OR THE ABSENCE OF LOSSES. CUSTOMER AGREES TO PROMPTLY NOTIFY THE CUNNINGHAM COMPLIANCE DEPARTMENT IF ANY SUCH GUARANTEE IS SUGGESTED.

3. MARGINS

All checks and funds from Customer, to be credited to Customer's account(s), must be payable only to "Cunningham". Customer agrees at all times to maintain such margin in his account(s) as Cunningham may from time to time (at its sole discretion) require, and will meet all margin calls in a reasonable amount of time. Customer agrees that, if requested to do so, Customer will promptly wire transfer such funds. Market conditions permitting, Cunningham agrees to make reasonable efforts to notify Customer of margin calls and/or deficiencies and to allow a reasonable period for Customer to provide funds.

FOR PURPOSES OF THIS AGREEMENT, A REASONABLE AMOUNT OF TIME SHALL BE DEEMED TO BE ONE (1) HOUR, OR LESS THAN ONE HOUR IF, IN CUNNINGHAM'S BUSINESS JUDGMENT, MARKET CONDITIONS WARRANT.

Customer further agrees that, notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, in the event that the account(s) is under margined, has zero equity or is equity deficit at any time, or in the event that Cunningham is unable to contact Customer due to Customer's unavailability or due to a breakdown in electronic communications, Cunningham shall have the right to liquidate all or any part of Customer's positions through any means available, without prior notice to the Customer.

Cunningham may require margin in excess of that required by applicable law, regulation, exchange or clearinghouse minimums. Customer acknowledges that Cunningham has no obligation to establish uniform margin requirements among products or customers that margins required by Cunningham may exceed the minimum margin requirements of the applicable exchange or clearinghouse, and that margin requirements may be increased or decreased from time to time in Cunningham's discretion, without advance notice to Customer. All deposits shall be deemed made only when cleared funds are actually received by Cunningham. If a check is not honored or paid by a bank upon presentment, Cunningham will immediately debit Customer's account for the amount of the returned check as well as any fees incurred.

Any failure by Cunningham to call for margin at any time shall not constitute a waiver of Cunningham's right to do so any time thereafter, nor shall such failure create any liability to the Customer. Cunningham shall not be liable to Customer for the loss or loss of use of any margin deposits option premiums, or other property, which is caused, directly or indirectly, by the failure or delay by any bank, trust company, exchange, clearing organization, other clearing broker or entity that is holding funds, securities, or other property to pay or deliver the same to Cunningham. Cunningham may, for any reason, require Customer to transfer its account(s) to another firm. If Customer does not transfer its positions promptly upon demand by Cunningham, Cunningham may liquidate the positions and Customer agrees to indemnify and hold Cunningham harmless from any and all losses resulting from such liquidation.

Customer acknowledges that Cunningham is hereby authorized, for Customer's account and benefit, from time to time and without notice to Customer, either separately or with others, to lend, pledge, re-pledge, hypothecate or re-hypothecate, sell or purchase, either to itself or to others, any and all property (including, but not limited to, securities, commodities warehouse receipts or other negotiable instruments) held by Customer in any of its accounts and Cunningham shall not at any time be required to deliver to Customer such identical property, but may fulfill its obligation by delivery of property of the same kind and amount.

4. LIQUIDATION OF ACCOUNTS

In the event of: (a) the death or judicial declaration of incompetency of Customer; (b) the filing of a petition in bankruptcy, or a petition for the appointment of a receiver; (c) the filing of an attachment against any of the Customer's account carried by Cunningham; (d) insufficient margin as determined by Cunningham in its sole discretion, or Cunningham's determination that any collateral deposited to protect one or more accounts of customer is inadequate, regardless of current market quotations, to secure the account; or (e) any other circumstances or developments that Cunningham deems to require action necessary for its protection, Cunningham is hereby authorized, according to its judgment and in its sole discretion, to take one or more of any portion of the following actions: (1) satisfy any obligation Customer may have to Cunningham, either directly or by way of guaranty or suretyship, out of any of Customer's funds or property in the custody or control of Cunningham, (2) sell any or all futures contracts, commodities, or securities held or carried for Customer or purchase any or all futures contracts, commodities, or securities held or carried as short position for Customer; (3) cancel any or all outstanding orders, Contracts or any other commitments made on behalf of Customer.

Any of the above actions may be taken without demand for margin or additional margin, without prior notice of sale or purchase or other notice or advertisement to Customer, his personal representatives, heirs, executors, administrators, legatees, or assigns, and regardless of whether ownership interest shall be solely Customer's or held jointly with others. In liquidating Customer's long or short position, Cunningham, in its sole discretion, may sell or purchase in the same contract month or initiate new long or short positions in order to establish a spread or straddle which in Cunningham's judgment may be necessary or advisable to protect existing positions in Customer's account, including by means of an EFP, EFS, EFO, or EFR or similar transaction.

5. CUSTOMER DEFAULT

In the event that: (i) Customer defaults on any obligations to Cunningham hereunder or otherwise in respect of any transaction or agreement; (ii) Customer fails to deposit or maintain required margin, fails to pay required premiums or fails to make any other payments required hereunder or otherwise in respect of any Contract; (iii) any representation made by Customer is not or ceases to be accurate and complete in any material respect; (iv) a case in bankruptcy is commenced or a proceeding under any insolvency or other law for the protection of creditors or for the appointment of a receiver, trustee or similar officer is filed by or against Customer, or Customer makes or proposes to make any arrangement or composition for the benefit of its creditors, or Customer or any of its property is subject to any agreement, order or judgment providing for Customer's dissolution, liquidation or reorganization, or for the appointment of a receiver, trustee or similar officer of Customer or such property; (v) any warrant or order of an attachment is issued against any Account or a judgment is levied against any Account; or (vi) Cunningham reasonably considers it necessary for its protection; then, Cunningham shall have the right, without limitation, to (A) close out any or all of Customer's open Contracts; (B) cancel any or all of Customer's outstanding orders; (C) treat any or all of Customer's obligations due Cunningham as immediately due and payable; (D) set off any obligations of Cunningham to Customer against any obligations of Customer to Collateral or the proceeds of the sale of any Collateral to satisfy Cunningham; (E) sell any Collateral and/or set off and apply any obligations of Customer to Cunningham; (F) borrow or buy any options, securities, Contracts or other property for any Account; and/or (G) terminate any or all of Cunningham's obligations for future performance to Customer. So long as Cunningham's rights or position would not be jeopardized thereby, Cunningham shall make a good faith effort to notify Customer of its intention to take any of the actions specified in (A) through (G) above before taking any such action, provided that Cunningham shall not be deemed to have breached any obligation to Customer if no such notice is given. Any sale or purchase hereunder may be made in any manner determined by Cunningham to be commercially reasonable. It is understood that, in all cases, a prior demand or notice shall not be considered a waiver of Cunningham's right to take any action provided for herein and that Customer shall be liable for the payment of any deficiency remaining in each Account after any such action is taken, together with interest thereon and all costs relating to liquidation and collection (including reasonable attorneys' fees).

6. SECURITY

As security for the payment or performance of all obligations to Cunningham or any of its affiliates now or hereafter existing (collectively, the "Cunningham Entities;" singularly, "Cunningham Entity") presently outstanding or to be incurred under this or any other agreement or otherwise, Customer grants the Cunningham Entities a security interest in and right of setoff against any and all property belonging to Customer or in which Customer may have an interest, and the proceeds thereof, held by any Cunningham Entity or carried in any account of Customer with any Cunningham Entity, or which are, or may become, due to Customer or to any of the Cunningham Entities for any of Customer's accounts (including amounts from any exchange or clearing broker in respect of any Contracts) and all rights Customer may have against any of the Cunningham Entities (collectively, the "Collateral"). The Collateral shall be subject to such security interest and right of setoff to discharge all obligations of Customer to any of the Cunningham Entities, wherever or however arising and without regard to whether or not any Cunningham Entity has made loans with respect to such Collateral.

The Cunningham Entities are authorized to sell and/or purchase any and all property in any account or to liquidate open Contracts or redeem money market or cash deposit investments in any account of Customer without notice in order to satisfy such obligations. In enforcing its security interest, the Cunningham Entities shall have the discretion to determine the amount, order and manner of property to be sold and shall have all the rights and remedies available to a secured party under applicable law. Without the consent of Cunningham, Customer will not cause or allow any of the collateral held in any Customer account, whether now owned or hereafter acquired, to be or become subject to liens, security interests, mortgages or encumbrances of any nature other than the security interest in favor of the Cunningham Entities. Customer acknowledges that Cunningham and each of its affiliates act as agents for each other in respect of the Collateral subject to the security interest, lien and right of setoff described above.

7. DEBIT BALANCES, COMMISSIONS, FEES AND OTHER COSTS

Customer agrees to pay (i) the amount of any trading loss, debit balance or deficiency in any of Customer's accounts; (ii) all commissions, fees and other costs incurred in connection with contracts executed, carried and/or cleared by Cunningham, including but not limited to, introducing broker and floor brokerage, clearing, exchange and NFA fees and (iii) all regulatory, exchange and other self-regulatory fees, fines, penalties and charges, and any taxes, incurred or imposed with respect to Contracts or other transactions in or for Customer's accounts and any other service-related fees charged to your account, including, but not limited to, wire transfer fees, statement fees and transaction fees. In the event that Customer's account is transferred to another broker, transfer commissions and/or service fees may be charged.

Any interest accrued in any account on excess cash balances shall be retained by Cunningham. Cunningham shall be under no obligation to pay or account to Customer for any interest income or benefits that may be derived from or use of client monies, reserves, deposits, cash equivalents or any other property. If Customer does not promptly pay a debit in Customer's account (s) and Cunningham deems it necessary to take collection action, Customer will hold Cunningham harmless for all losses and expenses and will reimburse Cunningham for the debit and all costs incurred, including reasonable attorneys' fees, in connection with such collection actions. Customer agrees to pay interest on debits and deficiencies at the greater of 2% per month or at an annual rate of 2% over the prime rate at the Lakeside Bank of Chicago.

Cunningham is authorized to transfer among your regulated account and any of your other account(s), including foreign exchange account(s) and non-regulated accounts(s) and vice versa, such excess funds as may be required for any reason Cunningham deems appropriate in Cunningham's sole and absolute discretion.

8. FOREIGN EXCHANGE RISK

If Customer directs Cunningham to enter into any transaction which is effected in a foreign currency or if funds provided by Customer involve the use of a foreign currency, any profit or loss arising as a result of a fluctuation in the exchange rate affecting such currency will be entirely for Customer's account and risk. All initial and subsequent deposits for margin purposes shall be made in U.S. dollars, unless otherwise requested in writing by Customer, and written approval from Cunningham is obtained. Cunningham is authorized to convert funds in Customer's account (s) into and from the relevant foreign currency at the rate of exchange plus appropriate fees, obtained from Cunningham or Cunningham's banker.

9. EXCHANGE AND FEDERAL RULES

All transactions handled by Cunningham on Customer's behalf shall be subject to the constitution, regulations, customs and interpretations of each exchange or market (and its clearing house, if any), on which the trades are executed, and to all applicable statutes and governmental regulations. Cunningham shall not be liable to Customer as a result of any action taken by Cunningham to comply therewith. Cunningham's violation of any exchange or other self-regulatory organization's regulations shall not provide Customer with either a defense to a claim by Cunningham or the basis of a claim against Cunningham. Cunningham has no obligation to ensure that Customer abides by the rules and regulations pertaining to it.

10. POSITIONS AND DELIVERIES

Customer acknowledges Customer's reporting obligations (regarding certain sized positions) under CFTC Regulations, including the obligation to complete Form 40 upon request by the CFTC. Customer acknowledges that the making or accepting of delivery pursuant to a futures contract may involve a much higher degree of risk than liquidating a position by offset. Cunningham has no control over and makes no warranty with respect to grade, quality, or tolerances of any commodity delivered in fulfillment of a contract. Customer understands that, unless the contract specifications state to the contrary, every futures contract contemplates delivery and Customer shall promptly advise Cunningham if Customer intends to make or take delivery. When Customer intends to take delivery, Customer shall deposit with Cunningham the full value of the commodity at least one (1) business day prior to the first notice day and, in the case of short positions, at least four (4) business days prior to last trading day. Alternatively, sufficient funds to take delivery or the necessary documents must be in the possession of Cunningham within the same periods described above. If Cunningham does not receive the aforementioned instructions, funds or documents, Cunningham is authorized, at its discretion, to borrow or buy any property necessary to honor such obligation, and customer shall pay and indemnify Cunningham for any costs, losses, penalties or damages (including, but not limited to delivery and storage costs) which Cunningham may incur in fulfilling this responsibility.

Customer agrees that Cunningham, at its discretion, may establish trading limits for Customer's account and may limit the number of open positions (net or gross) which Customer may execute, clear, and/or carry with or acquire through it. Customer agrees (i) not to make any trade which would have the effect of exceeding such limits, (ii) that Cunningham may require Customer to reduce open positions carried with Cunningham, and (iii) that Cunningham may refuse to accept orders to establish new positions. Cunningham may impose and enforce such limits, reduction, or refusal whether or not they are required by applicable law, regulations, or rules. Customer shall comply with all position limits established by any regulatory or self-regulatory organization or any exchange. In addition, Customer agrees to notify Cunningham promptly if Customer is required to file position reports with any regulatory or self-regulatory organization or with any exchange and agrees to provide Cunningham with copies of any such report. Cunningham expressly disclaims any liability for Customer's losses related to Customer's exceeding applicable limits.

Customer understands that if Customer does not liquidate a position prior to the end of trading on the last day before expiration of a security futures contract ("SSF"), Customer will be obligated to either make or accept a cash payment for cash settled contracts, or make or accept delivery of the underlying securities in exchange for final payment of the settlement price for SSF contracts settled by physical delivery. Unless the SSF contract specifications state to the contrary, every SSF contract contemplates delivery. Before a Customer will be allowed to make or take delivery of an SSF, Customer must provide Cunningham with information relating to the broker-dealer through which Customer will effect delivery. In this regard Customer will identify the name of the broker-dealer, the broker dealer's Depository Trust Number, the broker-dealer's Institutional ID number, and the Customer's account number on the books of the broker-dealer.

When a customer intends to take delivery, Customer shall provide notification and deposit with Cunningham the full value of the underlying securities subject to the SSF at least five (5) business days prior to the last trading day of the contract. When the customer holds a short position and intends to make delivery, Customer shall provide notification and tender the underlying securities subject to the SSF to Cunningham at least five (5) business days prior to the last trading day. If Cunningham does not receive the aforementioned instructions, funds or stocks, Cunningham is authorized, at its discretion, to borrow or buy any stock necessary to honor such obligation, or to liquidate or otherwise offset the position, and Customer shall pay and indemnify Cunningham for any costs, losses, penalties or damages (including, but not limited to settlement and transaction costs) which Cunningham might incur in fulfilling this responsibility.

Approval for hedge margins does not exempt an account from speculative positions limits. To be exempt from speculative position limits requires application and approval of a hedge exemption from the CFTC and the contract's respective exchange.

11. OPTIONS

CUSTOMER WILL NOT PURCHASE A PUT OR CALL UNLESS CUSTOMER IS ABLE TO SUSTAIN THE TOTAL LOSS OF THE PREMIUM AND RELATED TRANSACTION COSTS. CUSTOMER WILL NOT SELL (WRITE) A CALL OR PUT OPTION UNLESS CUSTOMER EITHER HAS AN OFFSETTING POSITION IN THE UNDERLYING FUTURES CONTRACT OR IS ABLE TO WITHSTAND SUBSTANTIAL FINANCIAL LOSSES.

Customer recognizes that Customer is fully responsible for taking action to exercise an option contract. Cunningham shall not be required to take any action with respect to an option contract, including any action to exercise a valuable option prior to its expiration date, except upon express instructions from Customer. In this connection, Customer understands that exchanges have established exercise cut-off times for the tender of exercise instructions, and that Customer's options may become worthless in the event that Customer does not provide instructions promptly. Customer also understands that some exchanges may automatically exercise long in the money options pursuant to the regulations of such exchange. Customer further understands that Cunningham cut-off times may differ from the times established by the exchanges, and hereby agrees to waive any and all claims for damage or loss which might arise out of an option not being exercised. Cunningham will not be responsible for information regarding option expiration dates and assignment notification. Additionally, Cunningham will not be responsible for any errors or omissions regarding such information. Customer understands that short option positions are subject to assignment at any time, including positions established on the same day that exercises are assigned. Notices of assignment are allocated on a random basis among all customers' short option positions which are subject to exercise.

12. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY OF CUNNINGHAM

Customer authorizes Cunningham to purchase and sell Contracts, in accordance with Customer's oral or written instructions. In executing transactions on an exchange, Cunningham will not be responsible to Customer for negligence or misconduct of an independent floor broker selected by Cunningham will not be responsible to Customer in the event of error, failure, negligence, or misconduct on the part of any non-guaranteed Introducing Broker, Commodity Trading Advisor, or other person acting on Customer's behalf and, without limiting the foregoing, Cunningham has no obligation to investigate the facts surrounding any transaction in Customer's Account (s) which is introduced by such non-guaranteed Introducing Broker, Commodity Trading Advisor, or other person.

Customer shall have no claim against Cunningham for any loss, damage, liability, cost, charge, expense, penalty, fine, or tax caused directly or indirectly by (a) governmental, court, exchange, regulatory or self-regulatory organization restrictions, regulations, rules, decisions, or orders, (b) suspension or termination of trading, (c) war or civil or labor disturbance, (d) delay or inaccuracy in the transmission or reporting of orders due to a breakdown or failure of computer services, transmission, communication or execution facilities, (e) the failure or delay by any exchange or clearinghouse to enforce its rules or to pay to Cunningham any margin due in respect of Customer's account, (f) the failure or delay by any bank, trust company, clearing organization, or other person which, pursuant to applicable exchange rules, is holding Customer funds, securities, or other property to pay or deliver the same to Cunningham, (g) any other cause or causes beyond Cunningham's control; (h) as a result of any action taken by Cunningham or its agents to comply with applicable law (including for this purpose the rules of exchanges, clearinghouses and other self-regulatory organizations); (i) as a result of any actions taken by Cunningham in connection with the exercise of the available remedies pursuant to Section 4; or (j) for acts or omissions of those neither employed nor supervised by Cunningham. Cunningham shall not be responsible for any loss, liability, damage or expense except to the extent that such loss, liability, damage or expense arises from its gross negligence or willful misconduct. In no event will Cunningham or any of its service providers be liable to Customer for consequential, incidental or special damages, even if advised of the possibility of such damages.

13. COMMUNICATIONS AND ORDERS

Since contracts may experience rapid movements in price, Customer's attention is required in the placement of orders and execution of the same by Cunningham. Unless a managed (discretionary) account has been arranged through the execution of a written trading authorization, each order should be communicated to Cunningham by the Customer or Customer's duly authorized broker. Instructions should include, but may not necessarily be limited to, the commodity involved, quantity, price, and delivery month. Any trade not specifically authorized by Customer must be immediately reported by Customer directly to Cunningham's Compliance Department. Customer will be financially responsible for all trades not so reported and for any losses arising by virtue of a course of dealing involving his grant of de facto control over the account to broker. Cunningham makes no representation, warranty or guarantee as to, and shall not be responsible for, the accuracy or completeness of, any information or trading recommendations furnished to Customer by its employees or agents.

Orders are good for one day only (regular day trading session) unless specified and accepted as being "open", in which case the order will remain open until filled or the Customer specifies otherwise. In some circumstances, Cunningham may be on the other side of Customer's trade. The price at which an order is actually executed shall be binding, even if incorrectly reported. Similarly, an order actually executed but in error reported as not executed is also binding.

Customer agrees that when Cunningham executes sell or buy orders on Customer's behalf, Cunningham, its directors, officers, employees, agents, affiliates, and any floor broker or terminal operator may take the other side of Customer's order for the account of such person subject to such order being executed in accordance with and subject to the limitations and conditions, if any, contained in applicable rules and regulations.

Cunningham offers certain Internet-based, electronic order entry platforms for the purpose of facilitating the entry of customer orders trading in Contracts ("CTS Platform (s)"). Customer understands that while the Internet and the World Wide Web generally are dependable, technical problems or other conditions may delay or prevent Customer from entering or canceling an order on a CTS Platform, or likewise may delay or prevent Cunningham from executing an order on a CTS Platform. Cunningham shall not be liable for, any technical problems, system failures and malfunctions, communication line failures, equipment or software failures or malfunctions, system access issues, system capacity issues, high Internet traffic demand, security breaches and unauthorized access beyond the reasonable control of Cunningham, or other similar computer problems and defects relating to a CTS Platform. Cunningham does not represent, warrant or guarantee that Customer will be able to access or use a CTS Platform at times or locations of Customer's choosing, or that Cunningham will have adequate capacity for an CTS Platform as a whole or in part by Cunningham's or Customer's use of or reliance on a CTS Platform or its content or in otherwise performing its obligations under or in connection with this Agreement. Cunningham reserves the right to suspend service and deny access to any CTS Platform without prior notice during scheduled or unscheduled system maintenance or upgrading.

In the event that Customer is unable to transmit an order through an CTS Platform, or is unable to confirm that an electronic order has been received by Cunningham, Customer should follow these procedures: (i) if Customer's account is introduced to Cunningham by an Introducing Broker, Customer must contact the Introducing Broker, notify the Introducing Broker of the exact nature of the problem and, if appropriate, place the order by phone through the Introducing Broker; (ii) if Customer is unable to contact his Introducing Broker by telephone, or, if Customer's account is not an introduced account, Customer must contact Cunningham at (312) 939-8950 and notify Cunningham of the exact nature of the problem including, but not limited to, the details of the order (including the contract, quantity and whether the order was to buy or sell). Customer agrees that any order placed through this number shall be for liquidation of existing positions only. This number is not to be called by Customer for customer support. Customer agrees that when following these procedures, Customer shall be liable for any losses arising out of any order that has previously been transmitted by electronic means, as well as the order placed orally through Cunningham or Customer's Introducing Broker.

It shall be Customer's responsibility to check Customer's electronic mail and a CTS Platform site on a regular basis, and no less than daily, to receive statements, compilations and details of transactions, and other notices from Cunningham. Customer agrees to download or print such statements, compilations and details of transactions, and other notices if such statements or information are available for downloading or printing. notices posted on an CTS Platform shall be deemed received by Customer by 10:00 a.m. (Central Time) after Cunningham posts such information and notices. Upon Customer's request, Cunningham will use an alternative method of delivering such document or information to Customer, at Customer's sole expense. Such alternative means of delivery shall not affect the date such document or information is deemed received by Customer, as set forth above. Details of trades and any other similar information or notices either sent to Customer or posted on an CTS Platform shall be conclusive and binding unless Customer notifies Cunningham to the contrary, (i) where a report or notice is sent electronically, posted on an CTS Platform or made orally, then, as the case may be, at the earlier of the time actually received, or deemed to be received pursuant to this paragraph 13 by Customer, or (ii) where a report or notice is in writing by 8:00 a.m. (Central Time) on the next Business Day following receipt of such report.

22. OFFSETTING POSITIONS

If Customer maintains separate accounts in which pursuant to Commodity Futures Trading Commission Regulation 1.46, offsetting positions are not closed out, Cunningham hereby advises Customer that (if held open) offsetting long and short hedge positions in the separate accounts may result in the charging of additional fees and commissions and the payment of additional margin, although offsetting positions will result in no additional market gain or loss.

23. CFTC Reg. § 15.05 -DESIGNATION OF CUNNINGHAM AS AGENT OF FOREIGN BROKERS, CUSTOMERS OF A FOREIGN BROKER AND FOREIGN TRADERS; AND REG § 21.03 SELECTED SPECIAL CALLS – DUTIES OF FOREIGN BROKERS, DOMESTIC AND FOREIGN TRADERS, FUTURES COMMISSION MERCHANTS (FCM) AND CONTRACT MARKETS

If Customer is a foreign broker it understands that pursuant to CFTC Regulation §15.05, Cunningham is Customer's agent (and in the case of a foreign broker, the agent of its customers) for purposes of accepting delivery, and service of any communication upon Cunningham shall constitute valid and effective service or delivery upon Customer (and if it is a foreign broker, upon its customers). Customer understands that said regulation requires Cunningham to transmit the communication promptly to it (or its customer) in a manner which is reasonable under the circumstances or specified by the CFTC. Customer also understands CFTC Regulation §21.03 requires it to provide to the CFTC upon special call, market information concerning its options and futures trading (or its customers') as outlined in the regulation. If Customer fails to respond to the special call, the CFTC may direct the appropriate contract market and all brokers to prohibit further trades for or on its behalf (or for its customers) in the contract specified in the call unless such trades offset existing open contracts. Special calls are made where the information requested would assist the CFTC in determining whether a threat of market manipulation, corner, squeeze or other market disorder existed. Under Regulation §21.03(g) if Customer believes it is aggrieved by the action taken by the CFTC it shall have the opportunity for a prompt hearing after the CFTC acts (Customer understands that copies of CFTC Regulations §§ 15.05 and 21.03 are available from Cunningham).

24. MARKET INFORMATION

Exchange and Cunningham brochures and research are often provided as trading tools. In addition, a CTS Platform may also contain certain market information. Customer acknowledges that: (a) any information Cunningham's research department may communicate to Customer does not constitute an offer to sell or a solicitation of any offer to buy any Contract; (b) such recommendations and information, although based upon information obtained from sources believed by Cunningham to be reliable, are incidental to Cunningham's business as a futures commission merchant, may be incomplete and not subject to verification, and will not serve as the primary basis for any decision by Customer; (c) Cunningham makes no representation, warranty, or guarantee as to, and shall not be responsible for, the accuracy or completeness of any information or trading recommendation furnished to Customer; (d) recommendations to Customer as to any particular transaction at any given time may differ among Cunningham's personnel due to diversity in analysis of fundamental and technical factors and may vary from any standard recommendation made by Cunningham in its market letters or otherwise; and (e) Cunningham has no obligation or responsibility to update any market recommendations or information it communicates to Customer. Customer understands that Cunningham and its officers, directors, affiliates, stockholders, representatives, or associated persons may have positions in and may intend to buy or sell Contracts which are the subject of market recommendations furnished to Customer, and that the market positions of Cunningham or any such officer, director, affiliate, stockholder, representative, or associated person may or may not be consistent with the recommendations furnished to Customer by Cunningham.

25. CONSENT TO JURISDICTION

Customer hereby waives any right Customer may have to transfer or change the venue of any litigation brought against Customer by Cunningham or by Customer against Cunningham. Customer acknowledges and consents to Cunningham's election to instigate legal action to collect any debit balance in Customer's account(s) in any court located in the Northern District of Illinois.

Customer appoints and designates Cunningham (or any other party whom Cunningham may from time to time hereinafter designate) as Customer's true and lawful attorney-in-fact and duly authorized agent for service of legal process and agrees that service of such process upon such attorney-in-fact shall constitute personal service of such process upon Customer; provided, that Cunningham or such other party shall, within five days after receipt of any such process, forward the same by air courier or by certified mail, together with all papers affixed thereto, to Customer at Customer's mailing address. If any provision of this paragraph shall be prohibited by or invalid under applicable law, such provision shall be ineffective only to the extent of such prohibition or invalidity, without invalidating the remaining provisions of this paragraph.

26. WAIVER, AMENDMENT AND ASSIGNMENT

The failure of Cunningham to enforce at any time any provision of this Agreement shall not be construed to be a waiver of such provision nor in any way to affect the validity of this Agreement or the right of Cunningham thereafter to enforce each and every provision hereof. No waiver of any breach of this Agreement shall be held to constitute a waiver of any other or subsequent breach. No waiver or amendment shall be implied from any conduct, action, or inaction. No provision of this Agreement may be waived or amended by customer unless such waiver or amendment is in writing and signed by an authorized officer of Cunningham. Cunningham may assign, transfer, sell or otherwise convey its rights and obligations hereunder to another futures commission merchant upon notice to you.

27. FACSIMILE EXECUTION

Customer agrees any records stored by printed media storage method shall be deemed complete, true and genuine record of your account documents and signatures. However, at the sole discretion of Cunningham, documents signed and transmitted by facsimile machine or electronic mail may be accepted as original documents. The signature of any person or entity thereon, is to be considered as an original signature, and the document transmitted is to be considered to have the same binding effect as an original signature on an original document. At the request of Cunningham, any facsimile or telecopy document must be re-executed in original form by the persons or entities who executed the facsimile or telecopy document. No party hereto may raise the use of a facsimile or telecopy machine as a defense to the enforcement of this Agreement or any amendment or other document executed in compliance with this section. OPTIONS DISCLOSURE STATEMENT

BECAUSE OF THE VOLATILE NATURE OF THE COMMODITIES MARKETS, THE PURCHASE AND GRANTING OF COMMODITY OPTIONS INVOLVE A HIGH DEGREE OF RISK. COMMODITY OPTION TRANSACTIONS ARE NOT SUITABLE FOR MANY MEMBERS OF THE PUBLIC. SUCH TRANSACTIONS SHOULD BE ENTERED INTO ONLY BY PERSONS WHO HAVE READ AND UNDERSTOOD THIS DISCLOSURE STATEMENT AND WHO UNDERSTAND THE NATURE AND EXTENT OF THEIR RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS AND OF THE RISKS INVOLVED IN THE OPTION TRANSACTIONS COVERED BY THIS DISCLOSURE STATEMENT.

BOTH THE PURCHASER AND THE GRANTOR SHOULD KNOW THAT THE OPTION IF EXERCISED, RESULTS IN THE ESTABLISHMENT OF A FUTURES CONTRACT (AN "OPTION ON A FUTURES CONTRACT").

BOTH THE PURCHASER AND THE GRANTOR SHOULD KNOW WHETHER THE PARTICULAR OPTION IN WHICH THEY CONTEMPLATE TRADING IS SUBJECT TO A "STOCK-STYLE" OR "FUTURES-STYLE" SYSTEM OF MARGINING. UNDER A STOCK-STYLE MARGINING SYSTEM, A PURCHASER IS REQUIRED TO PAY THE FULL PURCHASE PRICE OF THE OPTION AT THE INITIATION OF THE TRANSACTION. THE PURCHASER HAS NO FURTHER OBLIGATION ON THE OPTION POSITION. UNDER A FUTURES-STYLE MARGINING SYSTEM, THE PURCHASER DEPOSITS INITIAL MARGIN AND MAY BE REQUIRED TO DEPOSIT ADDITIONAL MARGIN IF THE MARKET MOVES AGAINST THE OPTION POSITION. THE PURCHASER'S TOTAL SETTLEMENT VARIATION MARGIN OBLIGATION OVER THE LIFE OF THE OPTION, HOWEVER, WILL NOT EXCEED THE ORIGINAL OPTION PREMIUM, ALTHOUGH SOME INDIVIDUAL PAYMENT OBLIGATIONS AND/OR RISK MARGIN REQUIREMENTS MAY AT TIMES EXCEED THE ORIGINAL OPTION PREMIUM. IF THE PURCHASER OR GRANTOR DOES NOT UNDERSTAND HOW OPTIONS ARE MARGINED UNDER A STOCK-STYLE OR FUTURES-STYLE MARGINING SYSTEM, HE OR SHE SHOULD REQUEST AN EXPLANATION FROM THE FUTURES COMMISSION MERCHANT ("FCM") OR INTRODUCING BROKER ("IB").

A PERSON SHOULD NOT PURCHASE ANY COMMODITY OPTION UNLESS HE OR SHE IS ABLE TO SUSTAIN A TOTAL LOSS OF THE PREMIUM AND TRANSACTION COSTS OF PURCHASING THE OPTION. A PERSON SHOULD NOT GRANT ANY COMMODITY OPTION UNLESS HE OR SHE IS ABLE TO MEET ADDITIONAL CALLS FOR MARGIN WHEN THE MARKET MOVES AGAINST HIS OR HER POSITION AND, IN SUCH CIRCUMSTANCES, TO SUSTAIN A VERY LARGE FINANCIAL LOSS.

A PERSON WHO PURCHASES AN OPTION SUBJECT TO STOCK-STYLE MARGINING SHOULD BE AWARE THAT, IN ORDER TO REALIZE ANY VALUE FROM THE OPTION, IT WILL BE NECESSARY EITHER TO OFFSET THE OPTION POSITION OR TO EXERCISE THE OPTION. OPTIONS SUBJECT TO FUTURES-STYLE MARGINING ARE MARKED TO MARKET, AND GAINS AND LOSSES ARE PAID AND COLLECTED DAILY. IF AN OPTION PURCHASER DOES NOT UNDERSTAND HOW TO OFFSET OR EXERCISE AN OPTION, THE PURCHASER SHOULD REQUEST AN EXPLANATION FROM THE FCM OR IB. CUSTOMERS SHOULD BE AWARE THAT IN A NUMBER OF CIRCUMSTANCES, SOME OF WHICH WILL BE DESCRIBED IN THIS DISCLOSURE STATEMENT, IT MAY BE DIFFICULT OR IMPOSSIBLE TO OFFSET AN EXISTING OPTION POSITION ON AN EXCHANGE.

THE GRANTOR OF AN OPTION SHOULD BE AWARE THAT, IN MOST CASES, A COMMODITY OPTION MAY BE EXERCISED AT ANY TIME FROM THE TIME IT IS GRANTED UNTIL IT EXPIRES. THE PURCHASER OF AN OPTION SHOULD BE AWARE THAT SOME OPTION CONTRACTS MAY PROVIDE ONLY A LIMITED PERIOD OF TIME FOR EXERCISE OF THE OPTION.

THE PURCHASER OF A PUT OR CALL SUBJECT TO STOCK-STYLE OR FUTURES-STYLE MARGINING IS SUBJECT TO THE RISK OF LOSING THE ENTIRE PURCHASE PRICE OF THE OPTION—THAT IS, THE PREMIUM CHARGED FOR THE OPTION PLUS ALL TRANSACTION COSTS.

THE COMMODITY FUTURES TRADING COMMISSION REQUIRES THAT ALL CUSTOMERS RECEIVE AND ACKNOWLEDGE RECEIPT OF A COPY OF THIS DISCLOSURE STATEMENT BUT DOES NOT INTEND THIS STATEMENT AS A RECOMMENDATION OR ENDORSEMENT OF EXCHANGE-TRADED COMMODITY OPTIONS.

- (1) Some of the risks of option trading.

Specific market movements of the underlying future cannot be predicted accurately.

The grantor of a call option who does not have a long position in the underlying futures contract is subject to risk of loss should the price of the underlying futures contract be higher than the strike price upon exercise or expiration of the option by an amount greater than the premium received for granting the call option.

The grantor of a call option who has a long position in the underlying futures contract is subject to the full risk of a decline in price of the underlying position reduced by the premium received for granting the call. In exchange for the premium received for granting a call option, the option grantor gives up all of the potential gain resulting from an increase in the price of the underlying futures contract above the option strike price upon exercise or expiration of the option.

The grantor of a put option who does not have a short position in the underlying futures contract is subject to risk of loss should the price of the underlying futures contract decrease below the strike price upon exercise or expiration of the option by an amount in excess of the premium received for granting the put option.

The grantor of a put option on a futures contract who has a short position in the underlying futures contract is subject to the full risk of a rise in the price in the underlying position reduced by the premium received for granting the put. In exchange for the premium received for granting a put option on a futures contract, the option grantor gives up all of the potential gain resulting from a decrease in the price of the underlying futures contract below the option strike price upon exercise or expiration of the option.

(2) Description of commodity options. Prior to entering into any transaction involving a commodity option, an individual should thoroughly understand the nature and type of option involved and the underlying futures contract. The futures commission merchant or introducing broker is required to provide, and the individual contemplating an option transaction should obtain:

(i) An identification of the futures contract underlying the option and which may be purchased or sold upon exercise of the option or, if applicable, whether exercise of the option will be settled in cash;

(ii) The procedure for exercise of the option contract, including the expiration date and latest time on that date for exercise. (The latest time on an expiration date when an option may be exercised may vary; therefore, option market participants should ascertain from their futures commission merchant or their introducing broker the latest time the firm accepts exercise instructions with respect to a particular option.);

(iii) A description of the purchase price of the option including the premium, commissions, costs, fees and other charges. (Since commissions and other charges may vary widely among futures commission merchants and among introducing brokers, option customers may find it advisable to consult more than one firm when opening an option account.);

(iv) A description of all costs in addition to the purchase price which may be incurred if the commodity option is exercised, including the amount of commissions (whether termed sales commissions or otherwise), storage, interest, and all similar fees and charges which may be incurred;

(v) An explanation and understanding of the option margining system;

(vi) A clear explanation and understanding of any clauses in the option contract and of any items included in the option contract explicitly or by reference which might affect the customer's obligations under the contract. This would include any policy of the futures commission merchant or the introducing broker or rule of the exchange on which the option is traded that might affect the customer's ability to fulfill the option contract or to offset the option position in a closing purchase or closing sale transaction (for example, due to unforeseen circumstances that require suspension or termination of trading); and

(vii) If applicable, a description of the effect upon the value of the option position that could result from limit moves in the underlying futures contract.

(3) The mechanics of option trading. Before entering into any exchange-traded option transaction, an individual should obtain a description of how commodity options are traded.

Option customers should clearly understand that there is no guarantee that option positions may be offset by either a closing purchase or closing sale transaction on an exchange. In this circumstance, option grantors could be subject to the full risk of their positions until the option position expires, and the purchaser of a profitable option might have to exercise the option to realize a profit.

For an option on a futures contract, an individual should clearly understand the relationship between exchange rules governing option transactions and exchange rules governing the underlying futures contract. For example, an individual should understand what action, if any, the exchange will take in the option market if trading in the underlying futures market is restricted or the futures prices have made a "limit move."

The individual should understand that the option may not be subject to daily price fluctuation limits while the underlying futures may have such limits, and, as a result, normal pricing relationships between options and the underlying future may not exist when the future is trading at its price limit. Also, underlying futures positions resulting from exercise of options may not be capable of being offset if the underlying future is at a price limit.

(4) Margin requirements. An individual should know and understand whether the option he or she is contemplating trading is subject to a stock-style or futures-style system of margining. Stock-style margining requires the purchaser to pay the full option premium at the time of purchase. The purchaser has no further financial obligations, and the risk of loss is limited to the purchase price and transaction costs. Futures-style margining requires the purchaser to pay initial margin only at the time of purchase. The option position is marked to market, and gains and losses are collected and paid daily. The purchaser's risk of loss is limited to the initial option premium and transaction costs.

An individual granting options under either a stock-style or futures-style system of margining should understand that he or she may be required to pay additional margin in the case of adverse market movements.

(5) Profit potential of an option position. An option customer should carefully calculate the price which the underlying futures contract would have to reach for the option position to become profitable. Under a stock-style margining system, this price would include the amount by which the underlying futures contract would have to rise above or fall below the strike price to cover the sum of the premium and all other costs incurred in entering into and exercising or closing (offsetting) the commodity option position. Under a future-style margining system, option positions would be marked to market, and gains and losses would be paid and collected daily, and an option position would become profitable once the variation margin collected exceeded the cost of entering the contract position.

Also, an option customer should be aware of the risk that the futures price prevailing at the opening of the next trading day may be substantially different from the futures price which prevailed when the option was exercised.

(6) Deep-out-of-the-money options. A person contemplating purchasing a deep-out-of-the-money option (that is, an option with a strike price significantly above, in the case of a call, or significantly below, in the case of a put, the current price of the underlying futures contract) should be aware that the chance of such an option becoming profitable is ordinarily remote.

On the other hand, a potential grantor of a deep-out-of-the-money option should be aware that such options normally provide small premiums while exposing the grantor to all of the potential losses described in section (1) of this disclosure statement.

(7) Glossary of terms—(i) Contract market. Any board of trade (exchange) located in the United States which has been designated by the Commodity Futures Trading Commission to list a futures contract or commodity option for trading.

(ii) Exchange-traded option; put option; call option. The options discussed in this disclosure statement are limited to those which may be traded on a contract market. These options (subject to certain exceptions) give an option purchaser the right to buy in the case of a call option, or to sell in the case of a put option, a futures contract underlying the option at the stated strike price prior to the expiration date of the option. Each exchange-traded option is distinguished by the underlying futures contract, strike price, expiration date, and whether the option is a put or a call.

(iii) Underlying futures contract. The futures contract which may be purchased or sold upon the exercise of an option on a futures contract.

(iv) [Reserved]

(v) Class of options. A put or a call covering the same underlying futures contract.

(vi) Series of options. Options of the same class having the same strike price and expiration date.

This Voluntary Arbitration Agreement will be deemed a part of, and incorporated into the Account Agreement with Cunningham Commodities, LLC ("Cunningham") when signed below whereby the undersigned consents to and agrees to abide by the provisions hereof. If you sign this Voluntary Arbitration Agreement you agree that any controversy, claim or grievance between you and Cunningham relating to your account(s) shall, except as provided below, be resolved by arbitration before a forum chosen in accordance with the procedures described herein. Any award rendered thereon by the arbitrators shall be final and binding on each and all of the parties thereto and their personal representatives and judgment may be entered in any court having jurisdiction.

Notification of your intent to arbitrate must be sent by certified mail to Cunningham at its Chicago office. At such time as you notify Cunningham that you intend to submit a claim to arbitration, or at such time as Cunningham notifies you of its intention to submit a claim for arbitration, you will have the opportunity to elect a qualified forum for the conducting of the proceeding. Please note that, in the Account Agreement, you have agreed that the venue for all arbitration proceedings shall be within the City of Chicago, State of Illinois. Within ten business days after receipt of a notice from you or at the time Cunningham so notifies you, Cunningham will provide you with a list of three organizations whose procedures qualify them to conduct arbitrations in accordance with CFTC Reg. §166.5, together with a copy of the rules of each forum listed. If you fail to make such selection within forty-five days, then Cunningham shall have the right to make such election. If Cunningham notifies you of its intent to submit a claim for arbitration, it shall designate a qualified forum for conducting the proceedings.

Cunningham will pay any incremental fees which may be assessed by a qualified forum for provision of a mixed panel, unless the arbitrators in a particular proceeding determine that you have acted in bad faith in initiating or conducting that proceeding. If, by reason of any applicable statute, regulation, exchange rule or otherwise (other than by reason of your entitlement to commence reparation proceedings under Section 14 of the Commodity Exchange Act and Part 12 of the regulations promulgated there under), your advance agreement to submit a controversy to arbitration would not be enforceable by Cunningham, then this provision shall not permit you to enforce Cunningham's advance agreement to submit to arbitration.

THREE FORUMS EXIST FOR THE RESOLUTION OF COMMODITY DISPUTES: CIVIL COURT LITIGATION, REPARATIONS AT THE COMMODITY FUTURES TRADING COMMISSION (CFTC) AND ARBITRATION CONDUCTED BY A SELF-REGULATORY OR OTHER PRIVATE ORGANIZATION. THE CFTC RECOGNIZES THAT THE OPPORTUNITY TO SETTLE DISPUTES BY ARBITRATION MAY IN SOME CASES PROVIDE MANY BENEFITS TO CUSTOMERS, INCLUDING THE ABILITY TO OBTAIN AN EXPEDITIOUS AND FINAL RESOLUTION OF DISPUTES WITHOUT INCURRING SUBSTANTIAL COSTS. THE CFTC REQUIRES, HOWEVER, THAT EACH CUSTOMER INDIVIDUALLY EXAMINE THE RELATIVE MERITS OF ARBITRATION AND THAT YOUR CONSENT TO THIS ARBITRATION AGREEMENT BE VOLUNTARY.

BY SIGNING THIS AGREEMENT, YOU: (1) MAY BE WAIVING YOUR RIGHT TO SUE IN A COURT OF LAW; AND (2) ARE AGREEING TO BE BOUND BY ARBITRATION OF ANY CLAIMS OR COUNTERCLAIMS WHICH YOU OR CUNNINGHAM MAY SUBMIT TO ARBITRATION UNDER THIS AGREEMENT. YOU ARE NOT, HOWEVER, WAIVING YOUR RIGHT TO ELECT INSTEAD TO PETITION THE CFTC TO INSTITUTE REPARATIONS PROCEEDINGS UNDER SECTION 14 OF THE COMMODITY EXCHANGE ACT WITH RESPECT TO ANY DISPUTE THAT MAY BE ARBITRATED PURSUANT TO THIS AGREEMENT. IN THE EVENT A DISPUTE ARISES, YOU WILL BE NOTIFIED IF CUNNINGHAM INTENDS TO SUBMIT THE DISPUTE TO ARBITRATION. IF YOU BELIEVE A VIOLATION OF THE COMMODITY EXCHANGE ACT IS INVOLVED AND IF YOU PREFER TO REQUEST A SECTION 14 "REPARATIONS" PROCEEDING BEFORE THE CFTC, YOU WILL HAVE 45 DAYS FROM THE DATE OF SUCH NOTICE IN WHICH TO MAKE THAT ELECTION.

YOU NEED NOT SIGN THIS AGREEMENT TO OPEN OR MAINTAIN AN ACCOUNT WITH CUNNINGHAM. (SEE 17 CFR 166.5.)

You are advised that if you seek reparations under Section 14 of the Commodity Exchange Act and Part 12 of the regulations promulgated there under, and the CFTC declines to institute reparation proceedings, claims or grievances may be subject to this Arbitration Agreement
